

SPOTLIGHTS ON SPORT
by JACK KEENE

Bob Roper, once a member of the army of hopefuls who hope eventually to wear the heavyweight crown, has laid aside his gloves and his hopes of copping the jeweled head-gear. Roper was a willing fighter. It must be said. He engaged in 102 battles and never heeled over the purse. Some of the cool, calculating gents of today won't ever fight in half as many contests, if they continue to quibble over the color of the lights in their dressing rooms before signing contracts to wage battle. Roper, however, never achieved much prominence. Perhaps a good manager would have helped him.

Now comes the word that a Spanish senorita, 18 years old, bids fair to challenge the supremacy of Helen Wills of the United States and Suzanne Lenglen of France, won on the tennis courts. The Spanish maiden's name is Senorita de Alvarez. We don't know much about her playing, but if she trips into the courts with one of those mantillas at a jaunty angle she'll have the crowd with her.

The world's biggest baseball is attracting considerable attention as it is rolled from city to city in the east by students of the citizens' military training corps. It measures 7 feet 3 inches in diameter and weighs 350 pounds. What we wonder is how far Babe Ruth could wam the thing if he took a healthy whack at it.

One of the saddest spectacles witnessed in the spring games this season, in my opinion, was the attempt of Allan Sothoron, former St. Louis, Red Sox and Indian pitcher, to come back. After a training season with the Cardinals he was sent in by Branch Rickey against the Milwaukee club. The first batter, knowing his weakness, bunted. Sothoron, forgetting what weeks more of training may have taught him, fielded the ball and threw it out of the lot. Here is a brilliant pitcher, possessor of one of the greatest arms in baseball at one time, who never soared to the baseball heavens simply because he could not field. A master of the situation while pitching, he becomes a hopeless dub when the ball comes back at him. This inability to acquire fielding skill cost him fame and fortune in the big show. Lee Fohl, Tris Speaker and a dozen other shrewd baseball men labored hard for months with red-shirted Allan in a vain effort to teach him something about catching a ground hit baseball.

Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, has just passed his twenty-eighth birthday. In the opinion of most critics, including the great typewriter this, he has also passed his lightweight days. There has been doubt for three years that Leonard really could make the lightweight limit without weakening himself. Today he is farther away from the 135-pound mark than ever. He appears heavier, generally speaking, and on closer examination the most of the excess poundage is felt around his hips. If Leonard fights any more it will be as a welterweight and not a lightweight.

Art Fletcher, struggling manager of the Phillies, has sent Leonard Metz, young shortfielder, to Waterbury in the Eastern league for further seasoning. He believes, however, the youngster will be ripe for a test in the big show before the summer ends. Metz was purchased from the Grand Island team in the Nebraska State league last fall after he played brilliant ball at short for the western outfit.

Edison Co. Will Sell $10,000,000 Of Par Value Stock

Authority to issue and sell $10,000,000 par value of 5% preferred stock, known as Series "B," was granted to the Southern California Edison company by the state railroad commission on Thursday. Proceeds from the sale of this new issue will be used for new generating plants, both water and steam, which are now in course of construction or soon to be started, and whose completion will greatly increase the capacity of the company for service.

Explaining the details of this Series "B" issue, District Manager W. E. Oliver said: "This stock will be offered to the company's 69,000 stockholders at the price of $90 per share. Any of the issue not taken by stockholders after the close of business May 2 will be offered to the general public, chiefly in the east, through the house of E. H. Rollins & Sons, acting as agents for the company. It is expected that this whole issue will be placed within a few days. This new stock should not be confused with the 7% preferred Series 'A' stock which the company has been selling through its investment department and district offices during the past year. The price of the 7% preferred Series 'A' stock continues to be $105 per share cash, and $106 per share on the installment plan. The new 6% Series 'B' stock has complete equality with the 7% Series 'A,' except as to amount of dividends."

WHAT IS A ONE CENT SALE?

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price—then another item of the same kind for 1c. As an illustration: The standard price of Jonteel Vanishing Cream is 50c. You buy a jar at this price and by paying 1c more, or 51c, you get two jars. Every article in this sale is a high-class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as we sell you every day at regular prices and have sold you for years.

A NEW WAY OF ADVERTISING

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-size package of high standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get customers. The loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.
